

the tallahassee irish society

The Tallahassee Irish Society's exclusive activity is promoting Irish and Celtic heritage and history through cultural and social events in the greater Tallahassee community. The Society is non-political, non-religious, and non-for-profit and will not be involved in controversial issues.

Your membership includes advance notification of society events and a subscription to TIS News, which promotes upcoming Irish events and cultural information. Submissions are welcome; please email articles and information to print@lithohaus.com.
